The American Church Union

A History of the Diocese of Christ the King and the Anglican Province of Christ the King

The Rt. Rev. Peter F. Hansen

"Our Anglican or 'Continuing Church' movement with its evolving objectives and emerging leadership at the helm has stayed on course by looking back. The unchanging features of creedal and biblical authority, Christological orthodoxy, and a clear, consistent ecclesiology need to be in our sights... lest we founder on unfamiliar shoals."

Bp. Hansen

In this compelling, concise, and insightful history, Bishop Hansen tells the story of the Anglican Province of Christ the King, led by the inspirational Archbishop Robert Sherwood Morse. He describes the dramatic events leading to the St. Louis Congress (1977) and the Denver consecrations (1978), as faithful Anglicans sought to ensure historic Christian faith and practice. Bishop Hansen recounts the growth of the Diocese and the national Province to become the leading voice for traditional Anglicans in America today. In conclusion, he considers the future of the APCK.
